SUB-THEME 7: ORGANIZATIONAL THEORY AND CHANGE DYNAMICS FOR SUSTAINABILITY

convenors:

Rodrigo Lozano
University of Gävle, Sweden

Sjors Witjes
University, The Netherlands

Sandra Caeiro
Universidade Aberta, Portugal

Sigurd Vildasen
Norwegian University of Science and Technology, Norway

Adriana Buhovac
University of Ljubljana, Slovenia

objective:
To discuss the contribution of organisational theory and change dynamics to creativity and sustainability. The theme should focus on how to motivate creativity in individuals, groups, and organisations so that the transition to more sustainable societies can be accelerated. Papers should focus on motivation, attitudes, drivers to change, resistance to change and how to overcome it, incorporation, and institutionalisation of sustainability in organisations.
description:
The theme should focus on how to motivate creativity in individuals, groups, and organisations so that the transition to more sustainable societies can be accelerated. The theme will discuss the contribution of organisational theory and change dynamics to creativity and sustainability. Papers should focus on motivation, attitudes, drivers to change, resistance to change and how to overcome it, incorporation, and institutionalization of sustainability in organisations.

keywords:
Organisational theory; organisational behaviour; change dynamics; sustainability; organisational change management; attitudes.

references:

Lozano, R., Ceulemans, K., & Scarff Seatter, C. (2014). Teaching organisational change management for sustainability: designing and delivering a course at the University of Leeds to better prepare future sustainability change agents. Journal of Cleaner Production. doi:10.1016/j.jclepro.2014.03.031